KRISTIE KERR - SPEAKER & WORSHIP LEADER

"I really want people to know that they are loved. They are loved by God, and they are loved by me." These words are the core of who Kristie Kerr is – and the heartbeat of all she does.

Kristie grew up in a pastor's home and found her calling to love people early in life. She graduated with a degree in Music Performance from North Central University and has worked in full time ministry for fifteen years. Through music, writing, teaching and creative service production, Kristie continues to find new ways to express the truth of God's love and grace to people. She is a featured writer on the mnbtg.com website in addition to serving as the chief creative advisor for the annual "Free To Be" Women's Conference.

Kristie will be joined by her husband Jeff, in leading our worship this weekend. Together, they founded Fourth Floor Ministries, a creative resource for churches and organizations. Their goal is to spread the good news of Jesus through creative content and empower and equip the body of Christ to do the same.

She is the proud mother of Lucy, Charlie, Betty and Dottie who manage to keep her house dirty and her minivan running most of the time.
