2024 Fall Retreats - Overview

Hear Ye, Hear Ye! Noble Youth Groups and Esteemed Leaders

By decree of Trout Lake Camps, thou art hereby summoned to a grand gathering of fellowship and discovery at our 2024 Fall Retreat Festivals!

Don thine finest garments and prepare thy hearts for an adventure unlike any other!

Throughout this retreat, we shall acquire a knowledge of the true King of Kings, unveiling the wonders of who Jesus was and is, as we gather in joyful worship, enlightening discussion, and medieval fun!

2024 Fall Retreats - Speakers

April Wahl

Quest, Crossing 3

April is a longboarding, Vans wearing, Pixar loving gal, living and dreaming in the middle of nowhere North Dakota. Having been in youth ministry for 15 years at Missio Church. She cannot wait to join us this fall.

Stephanie Page

Crossing 1

Stephanie is the Executive Director and Co-Founder of Stories Foundation. Stories Foundation is a non-profit organization in Minneapolis, that engages communities to fight human trafficking. She is passionate about following Jesus, her family, and coffee. She believes your story matters!

Spenser Larson

Crossing 2

Spencer is the Youth Pastor at Oakwood Community Church and loves Culver's cheese curds! He and his wife enjoy time at the lake, perfect fall days at the orchard, pumpkin spice lattes, and bringing people together! Spencer is passionate about communicating the Gospel to this generation and raising students to follow Jesus their whole life.

Molly Sanborn

Breakaway

Molly (aka The Cheese Ball Chick) is a proud wife, homeschool mom, speaker, author, adventurer, and lover of Jesus. Molly will make you laugh (and maybe even cry) as she shares practical, biblical, and comical applications to help you draw closer to each other and God.
