Rustic Cabins at The Point house 12 women and use down-the-path bathrooms. Modern cabins, which have their own bathroom and vary in size, sleep 6-12 women. Remodeled Rustic Cabins house 12 women and have no bathroom. The 26 rooms in Shalom House each offer hotel-like accommodations for two. In-camp RV sites provide full hookups. Please make other arrangements for infants and children; we are not able to accommodate them.

Direct your registration questions and dietary requests to Alex at 218.543.4565 or registration@troutcamps.org. Direct questions about retreat content to Mandy Johnson at fallrefreshment@troutcamps.org.

AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE

American Sign Language interpreting is available again in 2026 for chapel and workshop sessions! Please register and indicate you need ASL interpreting services no later than August 20, 2026.

SPEAKER | STEPHANIE PAGE

Stephanie Page is the Executive Director and Co-Founder of Stories Foundation and Storyteller Cafe. Steph believes everyone has a story and every story has value. By embracing our own story and sharing ourselves generously with others, we are taking the necessary steps towards changing the stories of injustice in our communities. Steph's relationship with Jesus Christ is the foundation for everything she does. She believes serving Jesus by loving people is the best way to spend her time. She also loves her family, coffee and being close to water.

WORSHIP TEAM | BREE MAYER

Bree Mayer is the worship pastor at Eagle Brook Church, Maplewood Campus. Bree and her team will lead us in authentic worship. Come enjoy worshipping together through a variety of songs to praise Jesus and reflect on God's goodness, love and presence.
